

COMPANY HISTORY

- Jan. 2000 Company founded by technology veteran Kurt Bunney in Tempe, Ariz. Initial purchase of Ensynch Data Center.
- Jun. 2001 Ensynch selected by the State of Arizona SFB to host the nation's largest education ASP
- Oct. 2001 Ensynch acquires Axx-is, a leading IT staffing company
- Feb. 2002 Ensynch achieves Microsoft Gold Certified Partner Status
- Feb. 2002 Ensynch leads international Active Directory design for global shipping giant architecting Microsoft Active Directory and Exchange
- Jun. 2002 Ensynch becomes Microsoft Hosting Solutions partner
- Mar. 2003 Company expands infrastructure services offering to a market seeking operational efficiency
- Dec. 2004 Ensynch receives award for pioneering solution in identity management
- Dec. 2004 Named "Best Place to Work" in the Valley by Phoenix Business Journal
- Feb. 2005 Named "No. 1 Computer Consultant" in Arizona by Phoenix Business Journal
- Mar. 2005 Launches disaster recovery offering featuring full workspace recovery
- Oct. 2005 Named to INC 500 by Inc Magazine
- Dec. 2005 Ensynch expands into new corporate headquarters in Tempe, Ariz.
- Jul. 2006 Ensynch awarded distinction of Microsoft "Worldwide Partner of the Year "
- Sept. 2006 Ensynch provides managed hosting for Microsoft Dynamics-Axapta customers
- Sept. 2006 Ensynch completes first phase of a multi-million dollar upgrade of its Tier 1 data center
- Oct. 2006 Ensynch opens El Segundo, Calif. office, begins to serve Southern California
- Dec. 2006 Ensynch CEO Gene Holmquist named "Business Leader of the Year" by Arizona Technology Council
- Apr. 2007 Builds Ensynch Network Operations Center inside CRG West, Los Angeles to offer managed services to So. Cal market